ASX ANNOUNCEMENT

21 September 2012

Texas: Birch # 3 Schwartz / Galbreath well update

Austin Exploration (ASX:AKK) today advised that it is still recovering drilling fluids from its Birch # 3 Schwartz/Galbreath well in Burlleson County, Texas.

The well is returning these drilling fluids to the surface under natural pressure. The operator expects that the drilling fluids will be recovered in coming days at which point it is expected that the well will begin to flow oil and a 24 hour Initial Production rate (I.P) will be obtained.

The Company looks forward to reporting these results to the market as they come to hand.

ABOUT AUSTIN EXPLORATION:

Austin Exploration is an Oil and Gas Company with assets in Australia and the United States. Austin has strategically shifted its core focus towards non-conventional shale exploration in the United States. The Company has now established a major presence in two of America's most prolific oil and gas basins. Austin controls more than 11,000 acres in Colorado in the Niobrara Shale and over 5,000 acres in Texas in the Eagle Ford Shale and the Austin Chalk. Austin has producing oil and gas wells in Texas, Mississippi and Kentucky. Austin also has a highly prospective Oil and Gas Licence, PEL 105, in the Cooper Basin of South Australia. The company's wholly owned US Subsidiary, Aus-Tex Exploration Inc, turned cash flow positive in January 2011. To face future opportunities, Austin has strengthened its board and management teams. Austin is listed on the Australian Securities Exchange (ASX code: AKK) and on the OTC-QX International in the United States (AUN-XY).
